MADRAS AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY,
TEYNAMPET, MADRAS.

17th March 1946. (2)

From Sir Sidney Wadsworth, Honorary Secretary,
Madras Agricultural Society.

To The Secretary to Government, Development department,
Madras.

Dear Sir,

I enclose a copy of 'Madras Garden Handbook' by Mr. A.J. Platt published by the above Society. As the original edition is out of print, the Committee of the Society asked Mr. Platt to make some alterations in it and send it for printing to the Government Press which printed the original edition. Mr. Platt did so, but has received the enclosed letter from the Superintendent, Government Press asking him to send the book back through the Society after obtaining Government sanction. It is not clear whether sanction is necessary in view of heavy work in the Press or in view of paper shortage. The Committee ask me to say that the Society's printing for the annual Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show and for the Annual Report has for many years past been done at the Government Press. The book which is now to be reprinted contains useful information on the grouping of vegetables and is therefore helpful to the Grow More Food Campaign. The Committee would be grateful if the Government would grant sanction for reprinting the handbook.

Yours faithfully,

S. Wadsworth

This is signed in pencil as it was signed in the open air informally and no pen was available. The signer regrets. 18/3/46

Very Urgent.

Dev. Dept.

Handbook - re-publishing - application for.

The C.F. may be needed. Mr. Platt rang me up about it. Apparently Secy E & PH doesn't know
why sanction is necessary, nor do I. Could the matter please be examined very urgently in consultation with E & PH and informally, and after showing the Govt. Press the necessity?
and Govt. sanction granted to-day if possible? (I think Sir S.
Wadsworth or Mr. Platt have asked if we will be good enough to heat this as urgent. I I should like to see again, & I mean, when the matter has been clarified.

With reference to 'A' above, it is submitted that according to article 236 of the Printing Manual, ~~the printing for private parties at the Govt. Press requires the special sanction of the Govt.~~ The printing ^{of only the} ~~of the~~ Agri. Horticultural Society's quarterly proceedings, annual report and Schedule of the annual exhibition and flower and poultry ~~of the Agri. Horticultural Society is permitted at the Govt. Press~~ Show ~~only at the Govt. Press is permitted~~ - vide fourth item in Appendix I sub. 131 of the Printing Manual. The special sanction ^(in an E.P.H. form) of the Govt. under art. 236 of the Printing Manual is therefore necessary for the reprinting of the "Madras Garden Handbook".

2. The ^{publication of the} "Madras Garden Handbook" will not come within the scope of ~~the~~ cl. 10(c) of the Paper Control (Economy) Order 1945, as the publication is a priced one. It will come under the definition of books given in cl. 18 of the Order. The Madras Hort. Agricultural Society has to obtain the necessary permission under cls 23 and 39(2) of the Order ^{for publishing the book}. Powers under these clauses have been delegated to the P.P.C. The P.P.C. may be asked to grant the necessary permission. Subject to order
