No.B 3. 685/46 dated 9-3-1946.

Sir, Stationery Duplex boards - required for printing ration cards
Local Purchase - Sanction of Government - requested.

On 5-2-46 I had a stock of nearly 1000 gross Pulp boards intended for printing ration cards. On account of sudden demands from Districts and from the Superintendent, Government Press, the entire stock has been completely exhausted. On 5-3-46 the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras reported that 3000 gross Pulp boards would be required urgently for printing ration cards. As it is not possible to wait till supplies are arranged for by the Paper Directorate against allocation for 1946-47 and as I understand that 552 packets of 100 boards each Duplex boards varying from 20 to 30 lbs., per 100 sheets of sizes 25" x 30" and 22" x 28" are available with Messrs. J.B.Advani and Company Ltd., Loane Square, Broadway, Madras, at control price of Rs.0-8-6 per lb., I request that necessary sanction of Government may kindly be made obtained authorising me to purchase the entire
