Sir,

EDUCATION - College Education - Evacuee student financial assistance - S. Kumaran - Application - reported

S. Kumaran, evacuee student studying in the Senior class in the Madras Christian College, Tambaram, applies for financial assistance. He did not apply for help last year or before. His father was a Superintendent of the Railway at Rangoon on Rs.350/-. Himself and his wife took ill and after long and protracted treatment died. The student's five sisters, all younger to him are with his aunt at Cannanore.
The student is staying in the student's private hostel at Tambaram. The student says that he had managed for his education till now with the funds he had and that he is now in need of financial help for this year. The Central Refugee Officer says that he did not recommend him help last year as the father of the student had sufficient funds for his education, but that he had spent much for medical treatment and that help is necessary for this year. This being the final year of the College education, I recommend the grant of financial assistance of Rs.544-4-0 as detailed in the recommendation form.

The application of the student in original and a copy of the letter dated 31-7-1945 of the Central Refugee Officer and a recommendation form are submitted herewith.

War - Evacuee University students - grant of financial assistance

I am annexing hereto an application from one S. Kumaran, an evacuee student from Burma studying in the fourth year University class of Madras Christian College, Tambaram. He has applied for financial assistance for University education. I did not recommend his case last year as his father had sufficient funds at his disposal to educate him. The circumstances have now changed. His father died after a prolonged illness and in the General Hospital, Madras. A large sum of money was spent on his medical bill. There are five grown up girls in the Convent at Cannanore besides the applicant to be educated and maintained. This application for financial assistance may kindly be considered. A statement of the expenses for the academic year 1945-46 as certified by the Bursar, Madras Christian College is annexed hereto.
