Dated, 27th February 1946

EDUCATION - College Education - Evacuee
student - Financial Assistance - Sam Ratnaraj
David - application - reported

Sam Ratnaraj David, evacuee student from Burma applies for financial assistance for his college education. He passed the S.S.L.C. examination in March last and has joined the Junior Intermediate class in Madras Christian College, Tambaram. His father Mr. O. D. Samuel was a clerk in the Accountant General's Office, Burma on Rs.220/- He is now also working in the same Office at Allahabad on the same salary. He lost only moveable properties by his evacuation and the loss is estimated to be Rs.2000/-. Mr. O. D. Samuel alone is at Allahabad while his wife and two sons are here. The financial position of the family can not be treated as deteriorated as the head of the family is drawing the same salary as before evacuation. The Evacuee Welfare Officer, Southern Zone has simply forwarded the application. I therefore, do not recommend any financial assistance to the applicant - who may be informed accordingly.
