L.F.NO. 93W DATED: 19-2-46

Sir,

Subject: Typewriter - Examiner's Office - Surrendered in February 1943 to meet emergency - Replacement - Requested.
Reference: Government Memorandum 38268-B/42-7, Edn., dated 26th January 1943.

With reference to the orders in Memorandum No. 38268-B/42-3, Edn., dated 17th December 1942 and 38268-B/42-7, Edn., dated 26th January 43, one of the typewriters of this office was temporarily surrendered in February 1943 to meet the increased demand for typewriters on account of constantly expanding work connected with the war. As the emergency necessitating the temporary surrender is presumably over and as on account of ~~xxxx in xxxx~~ the large volume of work in this office keen necessity is being felt for an additional typewriter, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to issue instructions to the Superintendent of Stationery to supply this office with a new typewriter in the place of the one surrendered to him with this office letter L.F.No. 9387 dated 10th February 1943 the receipt of which was acknowledged by him in his letter No. B.1.757/43, dated 3rd March 1943.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Examiner of Local Fund Accounts.

 CNo 10462 - From the Exr L.P. Sects, letter No. LF 9311 d. 19.2.46.
 Subject
 Typewriter - Replacement of surrendered machine
 The Examiner, L.P. Sects, requests that the typewriter surrendered by him in 1943 to meet an emergency may now be replaced to cope up with increased work in his office.
 Attention is in this connection invited to Memo. No. 9900 B/46-1 C2
 d. 19.2.46 to the Sgts calling for a report about the supply position of typewriters. It is found from his reply that resort to requisitioning of machines from less important officers to meet the pending demands for typewriters and if sufficient supply of machines is received from the C.P. & S India, then the request of the Exr may be complied with.

need to resort to requisitioning typewriters from less important officers and as he expects to have a stock of machines soon, the letter of the L. of S. may be referred to him for remarks
