Sir,
My father is unemployed. He says he cannot raise any more loans from personal friends for my education. In fact, he is pressed for repayment of the moneys he took on my behalf, with the expectation of returning them after I draw my allowance from the government. Hence I shall be grateful if you would pass my scholarship bill for payment without delay.

I stood first in most of the subjects in the terminal examination. It would be a pity if I have to give up my studies now. Thanking you for the same,

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

May S. Devar.

According to the details given in the Recommendation Form, the total amount of allowance works out to Rs 639, but the amount recommended in the letter is only Rs 529. - Presumably the figure 150 entered against 'Books' is an error for Rs 40 - the amount allowed in the previous year - Please report the correct amount of allowance recommended for the student with the necessary details for that amount
