Please see the request made by the Honorary Secretary of the Muslim Educational Association of Southern India, Madras, at pp.1-2 c.f. His requests are (1) supply of Press communiques etc. and (2) supply of the Fort St. George Gazette free of cost. He states that prior to the war, the Association was in receipt of Press Communiques and copies of all Government notifications. From the records received from the M.R.O., Chittoor, there is no information as to whether the Association was included in the mailing list of those to whom press notes and press communiques were supplied free of cost. But in view of the position set out at "A" in the letter there seems to be no objection for the supply of press communiques and press notes free of cost. Submitted for orders whether this may be done.

After orders are passed, extracts regarding the Honorary Secretary's second request viz., free supply of the Fort St. George Gazette may be sent to E. & P.H. department who are concerned with it.

Can you give me a list of associations and bodies (other than newspapers, journals and Press agencies) to whom press communiques and notes are being supplied at present?

P.G.N.

With reference to U.S.'s orders above, please see the annexures to G.O.No. 1091 dated 2nd April 1942 put up at flag (M). List of Associations to whom press notes and press communiques are sent are included along with the Editors of Newspapers and News Agencies to whom press notes and press communiques ~~xxx~~ are sent. There is no separate list of Associations maintained. Submitted for orders.

The annexure to flag (M) shows various bodies such as the Provincial Congress Committees and the S.I.L.F. The Muslim Educational Association appears to be a reputable body and may also be included.

May I also request that in the altered situation that now exists, a copy of the Fort St. George Gazette may also be ordered to be supplied to the Association free of cost.

The Association is purely a charitable Association and disburses nearly 30,000 rupees per annum towards scholarships and stipends to poor and intelligent muslim students studying in educational institutions of various grades and it is the only Association of its kind in the whole of South India.

I need hardly add how grateful the Association will be for this kindness on the part of the Government.
