Sir,

Subject: Stationery - Supply to the Assistant conservator of Forests - Calicut.
Ref. Government order No. Ms. 969 Pdn. dated the 13th May 1946

In the Government Order cited Government have ordered that the stationery indent should be sent to the Superintendent of stationery in the prescribed form duly checked and countersigned by the Chief Conservator of Forests.

2. District Forest Officers are authorised to indent for stationery and their indents are countersigned by the Conservator (please see page 92 of Madras Stationery Manual volume II Part I, Appendix II. The Assistant conservator of Forests is under the control of the Conservator, working plans Circle (please see Government Order No. Ms. 1621 development, dated the 22nd April 1946). I therefore request that the second sentence of the Government Order may suitably be modified substituting the words "Conservator, working plans Circle" for "Chief Conservator of Forests".
