I request that Government be pleased to sanction the supply of 100 flat files "ordinary" cases and 50 flat file "urgent" cases for use in the Madras Forest College, Coimbatore.

2. The scale of supply for the Principal, Madras Forest College before it was abolished in 1939 was 100 ordinary and 50 urgent. The last supply of the flat file cases was made in the year 1912 and the Principal states that no old stock is available for use now. The Superintendent of Stationery states that the sanction of the Government is necessary for the supply and I request that sanction be accorded at an early date.

Please see the note of Home on pp 5-6 ante. They suggest that the J. G. of Police may be consulted on the proposal of the S of S to make a reduced supply. Please see par. marked A in the letter of the J. G. of Police on p 1 of of G. No 721 Cdn d. 7.5.45. For the staff mentioned therein, an additional supply of 1000 flat file cases was sanctioned in the G. O. at (d). For nearly one-fifth of that staff, the J. G. now claims an additional supply of 1000 flat file cases which is disproportionately large. ~~the same~~ ^{however} ~~is taken in of other S of S~~ The S of S recommends the supply of 500 flat file cases and it may be accepted. ~~and~~ There is no need to consult the J. G. in the matter.
