 p 6 of

The D.P.S. reports that <sup>during 1937 to 1939</sup> music was offered as optional subject only to students of T.S.L.C Exam. and that it was introduced in high school classes from the year 1943-44. From the statement furnished on p 6 of, it will be observed that the number of students who took up music as optional subject is not sufficient to warrant the employment of a teacher for the sake of those students.
~~The proposed retention of the post of the Music~~ ~~Teacher in the school. Further Dip view of~~ the fact that no post is held as per on a permanent basis pending retrenchment and reorganisation, it is for consideration whether the post may be continued <sup>on a temporary basis</sup> for a further period of one year from 1.7.47. If so, the draft order

2. The statistics ~~from~~ <sup>who</sup> of the number of students ~~that~~ took Music as optional subject during the years 1943-1947, furnished by the D.P.S. on p 6 CF, do not justify the employment of a teacher for the sake of those students.
 The D.P.S. however, states that about six girls are likely to take up music
