At the instance of the A.G., Education enquire whether an officer recruited direct to the Madras Educational Service may be allowed to draw cost of living allowance at the usual rates admissible to a gazetted officer.

Under rule 14 of the Madras Educational Service rules on p.29 of the Madras Services Manual, Vol.II, the probationer is paid a pay calculated at the rate of Rs 100 p.m (The period of training is for 6 months). For purposes of ^{Cost of living} allowance (including special pay and ~~personal~~ personal pay)
'pay' is the criterion and in the absence of definite reasons to the contrary, the pay of Rs 100 is exclusive of cost of living allowance which may be allowed in addition. In this case as the probationer to M.E.S. is under training and ^{has} retains the status of a gazetted officer, there seems no objection to allow him the cost of living allowance under the rules i.e. Rs 50 in the case of 'married' officers and Rs 30 ^{or Rs 40} for single officers.
