MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SERVICE--Sri P. Bhadriah--Divisional
Inspector of Schools--Application of extension of leave-- Submitted and recommended.

Reference:--Application for extension of leave dated 24.4.1947 from Sri P. Bhadriah, Divisional Inspector of Schools, (On leave), Rajahmundry.

(The leave so far sanctioned for me extends up to the end of this month (April). Please see D.P.I.'s Pros.R.C.No.
11662-C-1/46 dated 14.4.1947, communicating a copy of the G.O.
Rt.No.64-Education dated 4.4.1947. But I regret I am not quite fit to rejoin duty on the expiry of the leave at the end of this month. Though there is a little improvement in my health, I am really afraid it will soon suffer a serious set-back, should I return to duty in May. I need rest for at-least one more month. I, therefore, request you kindly to recommend to Government a further extension of leave, viz. from 1st May to the end of May. The total amount of leave will amount to 4 months, including the further extension of leave now applied for.)

(copy) Submitted and recommended.

2. In G.O. Rty. No. 64-Education, dated 9th April 1947
Sri P. Bhadriah has been granted an extension of leave for one month from 1.4.1947.

To
The Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department,

Sir,
Sub:- MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SERVICE- Sri P. Bhadriah - Application of extension of leave - Consequential arrangements.

I have the honour to state that Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu, Personal Assistant to the Director of Public Instruction, was placed in additional charge of the duties of Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Elementary Education) pending regular appointment to the post. Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu has been discharging the additional duties of the post of D.D. (E.) from 13-3-1947. Sri P. Bhadriah, Divisional Inspector of Schools (on leave) who was expected to return from leave on 1-5-1947 was posted to officiate as Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Elementary Education). But he has applied for an extension of leave till the end of May 1947 and his application is being submitted separately and recommended to Government for sanction. In regard to the filling of the vacancy the post of D.D. (E) I may state that it will neither be possible to make any regular appointment to the post by promotion from a lower category in the service, at present, nor will it be desirable to fill the post by making some temporary arrangements. Considering all the present circumstances, I am of the opinion that the existing arrangements by which Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu is in additional charge of the duties of D.D. (E) is the best as no new officer will be able to do much whereas Sri R. Narasimhulu has at least acquainted himself with all the important files and he will be able to carry on till Sri P. Bhadriah returns from leave at the end of this month. It would take some time for a new person to acquaint himself with his work as Deputy Director of Public Instruction.

2) In the above circumstances, I recommend that the Government may be pleased to allow the existing arrangements to continue till Sri P. Bhadriah returns from leave. I also request the Government to sanction on behalf of Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu the grant of a charge allowance equal to one fifth of his substantive pay and also the Duty allowance of Rs. 50/- per mensem attached to the post of Deputy Director of Public Instruction, for the period he is in additional charge of the duties of Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Elementary Education).

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH Department.

Sir,

REF:- G.O.No.MS. 1191, Edn., dated 10th June 1947.

In paragraph 3 of the G.O. cited above, it has been observed that the Government have no objection to the place of Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu, Personal Assistant to the Director of Public Instruction, in additional charge of the post of Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Element Education) till 1st June 1947. Although the leave granted to Sri P. Bhadriah expired on 31st May 1947 afternoon he availed himself of joining time and actually joined duty on the afternoon of 9th June 1947 and relieved Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu of his additional charge. Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu

Para 1, P. 49 (C) had therefore to continue to hold the additional charge of the post of Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Elementary Education) till 9th June 1947 afternoon. In the above circumstances, I have the honour to report for the information of Government that I have sanctioned the payment of charge allowance to Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu for the period from 13th March 1947 to 9th June 1947 (both days inclusive).

Edn. and P.H. Dept. (A)

From the D.P.I., Nos. 11662-C1/46-1 & 2 dated 3-5-47.

M.E.S. - Sri P. Bhadriah - Extn. of leave - Consequent Arrangements

Sri G.L. Lobo, Dy.D.P.I. (Ele. Edn.), retired from service on 12-3-47 A.N. The arrangement that has been in view to fill the vacancy is to transfer to the post Sri P. Bhadriah, a senior Divl. Inspr. of Schools. But, Sri Bhadriah went on two months' leave from 1-2-47. He was also granted a month's extension. For the period until he could take up the post after return from leave, Sri R. Narasimhulu Naidu, P.A. to the DPI, was apptd., by the Dir., to hold addl. charge of the Dy. Directorate (Elementary Education).

Sri Bhadriah has now applied for yet another month's extension of leave (i.e., until 1-6-47). The D.P.I. recommends the extension and it may be sanctd.

The Dir. considers that, for the period of the present extension also, the arrangement under which Sri Narasimhulu Naidu holds addl. charge of the post of Dy. Dir. (Ele. Edn.) is the best. This view may be concurred in, in view the reasons given in para 1 of the letter at p. 3 C.F.

It is, however, for consideration whether the Dir. may be asked to ascertain from Sri Bhadriah whether he will be able to join duty as Dy. Dir. on 1-6-1947, or whether he proposes to further extend the leave. It does not seem desirable to continue the present arrangement indefinitely.

For the period of the addl. charge, Sri Naidu will be eligible for an allee. equal to one-fifth of his subst. pay - Vide Instn. 1 (b) under F.R. 49. The Dir. who ordered the incharge arrangement is himself competent to sanction the allowance. But he has now requested Govt. that, in addn. to this allowance, Sri Naidu may also be granted the duty allowance ^(special pay) of Rs. 50 attached to the Dy. Dir.'s post. Fin.

The reasons why the grant of duty allee. also is recommended may be requested to say whether his proposal are not known. The F.R.s do not authorize the payment in similar cases, of two different allowances. The proposal should, therefore, it seems, be negatived. Fin. may see before airen.

The question for consideration in this file is whether Sri Narasimhalu Naidu, Personal Assistant to Director of Public Instruction who holds additional charge of the post of Deputy Director of Public Instruction can draw the special pay of Rs.50/- p.m. attached to the post of Deputy Director in addition to the charge allowance (1/5th of his substantive pay). According to audit instruction 5 under Fundamental Rule 49, where the special pay forms part of the permanent emoluments of the post the special pay cannot count for purposes of additional pay which must be calculated upon the officers substantive pay only. In view of the definite audit ruling, Sri Narasimhalu Naidu will not be eligible to draw the special pay of Rs.50/- attached to the post of Deputy Director in addition to the charge allowance for the period he holds additional charge. Finance may therefore advise against the proposal.
