Sir,

Queen Mary's College for women, Madras - Post of Assistant Lecturer for House Hold Art - Qualifications - Issue of Ad-hoc rules.

In their order No. Ms. 2162, Edn., dated 20-12-1945, Government sanctioned a post of Assistant Lecturer for House hold Art on Rs. 100-10/2-200 in the Queen Mary's College for women, Madras for a period of two years with effect from the academic year 1946-47. On the recommendation of the Principal, Queen Mary's College, one Mrs. Rajammal Devadas who passed the B.Sc. Degree examination in Home Science obtaining a I class was appointed to officiate as Assistant Lecturer in House Hold Art under emergency powers with effect from 25-6-1946.

2. In the estimate of vacancies for 1947 sent to the Public Service Commission in December last the vacancy in the post of "Assistant Lecturer for House hold Art" was included and the Commission requested to recruit a candidate. But the Commission enquired whether a candidate, possessing an Honours degree is required for appointment to this post. As it is doubtful whether a candidate possessing an Honours degree in Home Science will be available, I recommend that Ad-hoc rules may be issued prescribing the following qualifications for the post of Asst. Lecturer for House hold Art:--

B.Sc. degree in Home Science of the Madras University, I or II Class.

Preference shall be given to persons who have undergone Training in Cookery and have attended a short course in practical Home-making.

3. A copy of letter No. 7147 B2/46-1, dated 4-1-1947 from the Public Service Commission is enclosed. The Commission has been requested to omit this vacancy for the present and proceed with inviting applications for other vacancies referred to in the estimate of vacancies.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
