EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

REFERENCE: 309-2-5/SHR

14 December 1946.

The Secretary-General of the United Nations presents his compliments to The Honourable.

Minister for External Affairs of India and has the honour to request him to bring the following matter to the attention of his Government.

In order to ensure adequate United Nations Library facilities both in Europe and America, it has been decided, in any case as a temporary measure, that the former League of Nations Library at Geneva shall continue to be maintained there under the auspices of the United Nations and that a second Library, the foundations of which have already been laid, shall be maintained at the United Nations headquarters.

The Secretary-General, therefore; has the honour to request that Member Governments will be so good as to forward regularly copies of their official documents, as well as those of their non-metropolitan territories, to both these Libraries. A list of the subjects on which the two Libraries require documentation is enclosed herein, and it would be appreciated if documents for the Library at the headquarters of the Secretariat could be addressed to:

A | The Librarian,
United Nations Library,
Lake Success,
New York,
United States of America, and marked "For Attention of the Catalogue Section". Those for the Geneva Library should be addressed to:

B. | The Librarian,
United Nations Library,
Geneva,
Switzerland.

The.....

The Secretary-General also has the honour to suggest that since the despatch and receipt of this documentation will inevitably lead to a certain volume of correspondence, it would be in the interests of administrative efficiency if the Librarians could correspond directly on these matters with the governmental authorities concerned. Provided that Member Governments are in agreement with this suggestion, the Secretary-General has the honour to request that he may be supplied with the names and addresses of the officials or authorities with whom the two Librarians should correspond.

(Seal of United Nations).

Pandit Jawharlal Nehru,
The Honourable Minister for External Affairs, Department of External Affairs,
New Delhi 3,
India.
