Handwritten notes on lined paper, possibly a ledger or journal. The text is mirrored across the center fold, suggesting bleed-through from the reverse side. The handwriting is cursive and somewhat faded. The notes are organized into two columns by a vertical line down the middle. The left column contains several lines of text, including what appears to be a date "10-20-11" and some numbers. The right column also contains text, with some words like "important" and "Nash" visible. The paper is aged and shows some wear and tear.
