Sir,

No.

dated, 16th January 1947. 7

3718 Reference your application dated 11th January 1947, received on 13th January 1947 at 3 p.m. for the use of the Museum theatre. The theatre is provisionally reserved for your Free Entertainments to Troops from 15th to 18th January 1947 (Rehearsal on 15th and 17th and performances on 16th and 18th inst) pending orders of Government.

In this connection I have to request you to ~~arrange~~ make adequate arrangements to prevent overcrowding and also to prevent the men from using the windows as exits, as the rattan seats are spoiled on account of the troops stepping over the seats in the Auditorium.

The Indian Station Concert Party invariably uses naked lights on the stage. This is against Rule 8 of the Rules regulating the use of the Museum theatre, and should be stopped.

I have already drawn your attention to the breakage caused to one of the glass panes of the door-way by the troops.

A copy of the Rules regulating the use of the theatre is enclosed ~~for~~ herewith for your reference.

It is requested that you will kindly note that much inconvenience is caused as the Party applied for the theatre at a very short notice (Please see Rule 5 of the Rules).
