ANSWER

(a) (b) & (c)

The Government have sanctioned an expenditure of Rs. 5.50 lakhs for the construction of new building for the Muslim Women's College in the compound of the Hobart Training School for women at Royapettah. A provision of Rs. 2 lakhs has been made for the work in the Budget Estimate for 1946-47. The Chief Engineer has reported that the preparation of estimates for the work will be completed shortly, that construction will be commenced, if possible this year itself and the work completed by 1948; if building materials especially iron and timber can be procured without delay. He has also stated that steps will be taken to procure the materials as soon as detailed estimates are ready.

The above answer has been approved by the Honourable Mr. T. Avinashalingam Chettiar.

212 QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

[4th March 1947]

New building for the Muslim Women's College, Madras.

* 215 Q.—BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) what steps have been taken by the Government with regard to the construction of a new building for the Muslim Women's College, Madras;

(b) when a new building for the above college is expected to be ready; and

(c) the amount that has been sanctioned by the Government for the construction of the aforesaid building?

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“(a) to (c) The Government have sanctioned an expenditure of Rs. 5.50 lakhs for the construction of a new building for the Muslim Women's College in the compound of the Hobart Training School for Women at Royapettah. A provision of Rs. 2 lakhs has been made for the work in the Budget Estimate for 1946-47. The Chief Engineer has reported that the preparation of estimates for the work will be completed shortly, that construction will be commenced, if possible this year itself and the work completed in 1948, if building materials especially iron and timber can be procured without delay. He has also stated that steps will be taken to procure the materials as soon as detailed estimates are ready.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“May I enquire, Sir, whether the amount that has been provided for the construction of this college has been provided by the Central Government from the Post-war Reconstruction Fund or by the Provincial Government?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“Notice.”

SRI S. NAGARAJA MANIGAR:—“May I know, Sir, whether the department concerned did any work in this matter after the present Ministry came into office?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“Yes, Sir, as much as possible.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“May I ask, Sir, why the Public Works Department is so very slow and slack in the execution of the work allotted to it?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“They are not slow or slack; they are doing their duties properly and everything has been done in the course of time.”

BEGUM SULTAN MIR AMIRUDDIN:—“May I ask why ‘Willington House’, which adjoins this Muslim Women's College has not yet been made available to this college for its use as a hostel, in pursuance of the recommendation of the Education Department?”

4th March 1947]

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“That is a different question altogether. That does not arise from the present question.”

SRIMATHI C. AMMANNA RAJA:—“May I know how many Muslim students are there in this Muslim Women's College?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“Notice.”

DR. S. SUBRAHMANYA AYYAR:—“Will Government consider the desirability of constructing other women's college for girls from other communities?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“That raises a big question of policy which cannot be answered now.”

SRIMATHI C. AMMANNA RAJA:—“May I know whether it is not a fact that there are more non-Muslim students than Muslim students and more non-Muslim staff than Muslim staff in that college?”

THE HON. SRI K. BHASHYAM:—“I am not able to answer that question. If that is so, it may be so.”

* Questions 216 to 219 printed in Assembly Debates, dated 3rd March 1947.

Fish caught by the Fisheries department.

* 220 Q.—SRI S. NAGAPPA: Will the Hon. the Minister for Forests be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Fisheries department prepares any statistics in respect of the quantities of fish caught in each year and the value of the same; and

(b) if not, why not?

THE HON. SRI B. VENKATARATNAM:—“(a) The answer is in the affirmative.

“(b) Does not arise.”

SRI S. NAGAPPA:—“May I know what facilities Government have provided to the fishermen to increase their catch of fish? Why not Government organize fishermen's societies and provide them with fund in order to purchase implements in order to catch more fish and solve the food situation?”

THE HON. SRI B. VENKATARATNAM:—“It is not connected with this question.”

SRI S. NAGAPPA:—"Sir, as my question deals with the question of quantity of fish, I am of the opinion that it does concern with this question, and I request the Hon. Minister to consider his answer once again and tell me what facilities he will at least in future give to catch more fish."

(Several voices: 'Catch more fish!') (Laughter.)

THE HON. SRI B. VENKATARATNAM:—"It shall be considered if a separate question is put."
