Madras Record Office,
Chittoor, 25th June 1947.

Dear Mr. Subramanian,

I have received a telegram saying that my father died suddenly of heart failure. I am therefore obliged to go to Mangalore immediately. I have applied for earned leave for 16 days from to-morrow and have forwarded my application through the Accountant-General. In the meantime I am handing over charge to the Assistant Curator and leaving Chittoor to-morrow in anticipation of the sanction of leave. As I have not taken any leave during the last ten years, I hope the leave that I have applied for will be sanctioned and my action approved.

Yours sincerely,

M.V. Subramanian
