Question 184.

Draft answer.

Will the Hon'ble the Minister for Education be pleased to state:

- (a) the policy of the Government with regard to Basic Education;
- (b) whether they have opened any Training Schools;

(a) & (b)

The Govt. propose to introduce the Basic Education System of Education in the Presidency when a sufficient number of teachers trained in that system becomes available. They have decided to open three Basic Trainings Schools - one in the Tamil districts, another in the Telugu districts, and the third in the West Coast districts. The opening of a Basic Training School at Periyannayarkkuppalayam in the Coimbatore district has already been sanctioned. The question of opening the other two schools is under consideration.

- (c) whether the Govt. propose to give recognition and aid to the schools run by the private institutions or Basic Edn. Sections Societies;

R/3 (c)

Basic schools which are conducted efficiently according to the principles of the Wardha Scheme will be recognised and aided by the Educational Dept. in the same way as ordinary elementary schools.

- (d) whether the Govt. have recd. any representation from the Tamil Nad Basic Edn. Society to give recognition and aid to the Basic schools started and run by them in various parts of Tamil Nad;
- (e) if so, what they have done for them;

(d) & (e)

The Govt. have not recd. any representation from the Tamil Nad Basic Edn. Society. With reference to a representation recd. from the Tamil Nad Hindu Educational Society, the Govt. have instructed the D.P.I. to recognise and aid the schools conducted by

27 Q.—SRI N. M. R. SUBBARAMAN: Will the Hon. Minister for Education be pleased state—

(a) the policy of the Government with regard to basic education;

(b) whether they have opened any training schools;

(c) whether the Government propose to give recognition and aid to the schools run by the private institutions or basic education societies;

(d) whether the Government have received any representation from the Tamil Nad Basic Education Society to give recognition and aid to the basic schools started and run by them in various parts of Tamil Nad;

(e) if so, what they have done for them;

(g) if so, what are the steps taken in the direction; and

(7) whether any new training schools have been opened and how many

A.—(a) & (b) The Government propose to introduce the basic system of education in the Presidency when a sufficient number of teachers trained in that system becomes available. They have decided to open three basic training schools—one in the Tamil districts, another in the Telugu districts, and the third in West Coast districts. The opening of a basic training school at Periyanaayakkanpalayam in the Coimbatore district has already been sanctioned. The question of opening the other two schools is under the Sangh like ordinary ele. schools.

F) whether the Govt. have any programme for training of teachers for elementary schools;

(g) if so, what are the steps taken in that direction; and

1) whether any new Training Schools have been opened and how many have applied for admission into those schools?

(6), (8) (15)
It is presumed that the Hon. Member refers to ~~the~~ training of teachers for ordinary elementary schools. The Govt. have sanctioned the opening of 100 addl. training schools in 1946-47 with a view to meeting the probable demand for a large no. of teachers ~~required~~ in connection with the schemes of compulsory elementary education. The question of continuing these schools will be considered in due course. A report has been called for from the D.P.I. as regards the actual no. of schools opened and the number of candidates applied for admission, and ^{the no.} ~~that~~ ^{the} admitted, into training schools.
