MADRAS PROVINCIAL WELFARE FUND
APPEAL.

Since my husband became Governor of Madras eight months ago I have visited the great majority of districts in this province, and have had an opportunity of seeing for myself the state of our welfare services.

If I am to be quite frank, I must say that I am horrified at the hardship, ill-health and misery, which exist in this province. No one can see the distress I have seen without being profoundly shocked at the appealing waste of human life and the immense amount of avoidable suffering. Quite apart from the humane aspect the resulting loss of efficiency cannot fail to retard that progress which every one so earnestly desires. None of us should be content to sit still and passively deplore these conditions. We should all be prepared to act and do everything in our power to put an end to this state of affairs and relieve the misery of our fellow human beings.

I know the Government are doing everything they can to improve the conditions of those who put them in power, but I also know that the money at the disposal of the Government is pathetically inadequate to meet the needs, and if we rely solely on official sources it will probably be many years before a real improvement can be effected.

I am sure there are many richmen and women and flourishing business concerns in this province who can afford to subscribe generously to this noble cause, and who, I have no doubt, are only too anxious to help. There are also many others who may not be rich but who can afford to give something to help their less fortunate brethren. I know there is no lack of the will to give, indeed I have seen numerous examples of great practical generosity. But I think there are many kindly disposed people who are uncertain of how best to help their fellows.

I have therefore decided to launch an appeal for a fund to be called the "MADRAS PROVINCIAL WELFARE FUND". Its object will be to help in any welfare project or any social service such as hospitals, maternity centres, child welfare centres, creches, rescue homes and similar projects. It will be administered by a central committee of leading citizens with affiliated committees in the Districts.

Donations may be sent to me or to the Treasurer, Mr. K. Nanjappa, Imperial Bank of India, Head Office, Madras and can at the request of the subscriber, be ear-marked for some particular purpose.

I appeal most earnestly and with all my heart to men and women of goodwill to give, and to give generously, to this fund. I feel sure that those who are prepared to hold out a helping hand to the poor, the sick and the distressed, will earn the thanks of those they they benefit, the gratitude of all responsible for the welfare of the people and, above all the blessing of God.

G.S.C. Rules - Permission for officers to serve on the Committees of a Fund.

The Hon. the Lady Nye has issued ~~an~~ appeal at C.F. 1~~2~~ for a Fund called the MADRAS PROV. WELFARE FUND, which has as its object the organization of welfare and social services and which has to be administered by a Central Committee and Dt. Committees. Sri D. Ramayya, Divl. Inspr. of Schools, Godavari Divn., Rajahmundry, has asked for permission to be a member of the Divl. Committee of the Fund ^{at} Rajahmundry. The ^{membership} ~~permission~~ would involve the officer ~~in~~ the collection of money. But, it seems that it may be granted under the second sub-para of s.r. 1 under G.S.C. Rule 6, in view of Lady Nye's appeal.

2. The DPI has, in this connection, ~~be~~ requested that a general direction ^{may be issued} permitting such of those gazetted officers in the Edn. Dept. as are willing to become members of the Divl. Committees of the Fund, to serve in those capacities, subject to their not personally soliciting subscriptions.

This request may also be complied with, for the same consideration as has been mentioned above.

3. Pub. (Genl.) may see for remarks. It is possible that Rev. ^{might} ~~have~~ dealt with similar cases of their officers in relation to this Fund. That Dept. may also see.
