No. G. IV Edn. 1591.

Office of the Accountant General, Madras,
Fort St., George, Dated 15th May, 1947.

The Assistant Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department, Fort St., George, Madras.

Sub: Sri S. Anatakrishnan, Instructor in Mechanical Engineering, college of Engineering Cocanada - admissibility of officiating promotion.

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of the letter from the officer forwarded through the Director of Public Instruction, Madras. The officer is a permanent senior workshop instructor in the college of Engineering Guindy drawing the maximum of Rs.420/- in the scale of Rs-200-30/2-260-40/2-420. In G.O.2172, Edn dated 13-11-46 he was appointed to officiate as Instructor, College of Engineering Vizag at Cocanada. The officer contends that the present post of Instructor is considered to be a post higher than that of senior workshop Instructor involving the assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance and that he should therefore be allowed to draw higher officiating pay in the new post. Under the service rules the two posts are included in category IV 4 of class V in the M.E.S.. It may please be stated whether officiating promotion is admissible from the post of senior workshop Instructor to Instructor.

He will get Rs.460 in the M.E.S. scale if the query is answered in the affirmative.

Copy of letter No. Nil dated 28th March 1947 from S. Anantakrishnan, B.A., B.E., Instructor in Mechanical Engineering, College of Engineering Cocanada to the Accountant General, Madras (Through The Director of Public Instruction, Madras. 6).

With reference to your reply ~~(copy enclosed)~~ regarding the fixing of my pay in the present post in which I was appointed to officiate in G.O. No. Ms. 2172 (Edn) dated 13-11-46, I request you to reconsider the matter in the light of my representation submitted below.

I am holding the substantive post of the Senior Workshop Instructor, College of Engineering, Guindy. According to the Statutory rules, the present post of the Instructor in Mechanical Engineering is considered to be a post higher than that of the Senior Workshop Instructor involving the assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance. It will also be noted that the scale of pay has been fixed correspondingly at a higher level. On these grounds, I should be enabled to draw my pay here at a rate higher than what I was drawing as my substantive pay in the previous post. May I therefore request you to issue a separate revised pay slip as early as possible.

The proposal is to allow officiating promotion under F.R.30 from the post of Senior Workshop Instructor, College of Engineering, Guindy (Rs.200-420) to the post of Instructor, College of Engineering, Vizagapatam. ^(Rs 200-700) Both the posts are included in one and the same category in the Madras Educational Service - category 4 of Class V of the Madras Educational Service.

Under F.R.30 a Government servant appointed to officiate in a post shall not draw pay higher than his substantive pay in respect of a permanent post unless the officiating appointment involves the assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance than these attaching to the post. Education and Public Health consider that officiating promotion should be allowed in this case for the following reasons:-

(a) The special service rules provide for promotion from the Senior Workshop Instructor or ^{Junior} ~~Senior~~ Workshop Instructor.

(b) The duty of lecturing to B.E. students is attached to the post of Instructor, College of Engineering, Vizagapatam while no such work is attached to the Senior Workshop Instructor, College of Engineering, Guindy. It is submitted that the above reasons are not adequate enough to justify that higher responsibilities are attached to the post of Instructor, College of Engineering, Vizagapatam. The fact that an instructor has to attend to lecturing work in one College and has not to attend to this work in another College is not an adequate ground for allowing officiating promotion as these posts are included in one and the same category in the Madras Educational Service. Finance may therefore advise that officiating allowance need be allowed in this case.

I think, it must be agreed that the duties & responsibilities are greater than of the Sr. Workshop Instructor. An University lecturer has a greater responsibility and duties than an ordinary school teacher. Officiating allowance may be given.

Edn. and P.H. Dept. (A).

Posts of Sr. Workshop Instructors and of Instructors in Engg. Colleges are included in one and the same category in the M.E.S. - Categ. 4 of Class V. But the former ^{now} carry the scale of pay of Rs.200-420 whereas the latter Rs. ~~200~~ ²³⁰-700. Further, one of the methods of recruitment prescribed in rule 2(a) of the Special Rules for the Instructorship is "Promotion from Sr. Workshop Instructor or Junior Instructor".

In view of this provision in the rules and of the information furnished by the D.P.I. in para 4 at pp.13-14 (in reply to the telephonic enquiry at p.10) of "W", it should appropriately be held that the Instructor's post carries with it duties of greater importance than the Sr. Workshop Instructor's. The enquiry in the last sentence of the A.G.'s letter at p.1 ante may therefore be answered in the affirmative. Finance may see.

G.O. (Ms.) No. 1643 Edu of 22.7.47

M.E.S. - Admissibility of offg. promotion from posts of Sr. workshop Instructors to the ~~SL~~ of Instructors.

Read: From the A.G., No. G.IV. Edn. 1591, d/ 15.5.47.

The duties and responsibilities attaching to posts of Instructors (Engg. Colleges) are greater than those attaching to the posts of Sr. Workshop Instructors though both the kinds of posts are included in one and the same category in the M.E.S. (Men's Branch). The Govt. therefore direct that offg. promotion carrying offg. allce. be admissible to the Instructorships from the posts of Sr.
Workshop Instructors.
