The personal file of Mrs. V. Chellammal, which was recd. along with many others from the M.P.S.C. in connection with the drawing up of the approved list for appt. by transfer to the M.E.S., was removed from the bundle and put up in ^{the} file before the order went in circn. at the "draft-stage" as H.M.(Edn.) used to call for personal files of officers at the time of their promotion. The intention was to return the personal file to the D.P.I. along with the ~~other~~ others when orders on the Comm.'s recommendations re: the approved list, were communicated to him. Therefore, it was not marked as encl. to the draft. The personal file was not however recd. back from circn. with the file; ~~It is remembered that~~ on return from circn. the file contained, in addn. to the C.F. and the draft, only the previous G.O.'s. The P.C. to H.M.(Edn.) may first be requested to ascertain and say whether the personal file is with H.M. in his room or is kept in any other file/by mistake.

N.M.(Edn.) has stated that the personal file of Mrs V. Chellammal is not with him; nor (he says) did he remove anything from the file. I have also ransacked all files and racks in Mr's room but I do not find it. ~~Perhaps it might have been mislaid in the dept. itself.~~

Before the above was sent to the P.C. G.S. was contacted over the phone. They said "it could not have been taken out or misplaced". It is better to send an official.

A 'note' may be sent to the Secy's Office. At the same time, the Secy's Office may be requested ~~made~~ to make a search of ^{by mistake} ~~the~~ file has been recd in their office, along with ~~the~~ other personal files (sent ^{recently} by Govt.) or having been sent directly to ~~that~~ any other dept. of the Secy. who found it mis- placed in any of their files.
