Sir,

Sri D. Ramaiah, former District Educational Officer, East Godavari District, Cocanada, assumed charge of the post of the Divisional Inspector of Schools, Godavari Division, Rajahmundry on 31.1.1947 Afternoon. He reports that ever since he assumed charge of his new post, he was making vigorous attempts to secure a suitable accommodation for him at Rajahmundry but could not secure one till the end of May 1947. After securing accommodation, he brought his family and personal effects from Cocanada to Rajahmundry on 23rd and 25th May 1947 respectively i.e., after a lapse 3 months. He requests that Rule 71 of the Madras Travelling Rules may be relaxed in his favour to enable him to claim Travelling Allowance on behalf of his family and personal effects.

As the difficulty in securing houses at Rajahmundry Town is genuine and as the delay in bringing his family and personal effects was due to reasons beyond his control, I have the honour to recommend to Government to relax Rule 71 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules in his favour so as to enable him to claim the transfer Travelling Allowance on behalf of his family and personal effects.
