Subject Request for postponement of deductions L.P.F. Loan

Sir
1. I have been on leave since July 1946 and have, during a part of it, been abroad. In that way I have had to incur considerable expense.

In 1947 I took an advance from my L.P.F.

2. acct.

3. In view of my having a car advance and a special advance from the H.C. India to repay I request that I may be permitted to postpone repayment of the L.P.F. advance. ^{I could have also to that the L.P.F. loan.}

4. My dependants are wife and one child and they are not likely to be affected in any way.

5. The position is made somewhat difficult by the fact that I have been drawing out Rs 2300 continuously in the last few years as salary and have now to come down to less than half of that and adjust all my living expenses accordingly - a process that may take time, and tax my resources.

For these reasons I request

9
 that you be pleased to permit me to postpone repayment of the G.P.F. advance
 I have been to be in the United States of America.

Rc.436-E2/49 dated 10th March '49

Sir,

Sub:--General Provident Fund--Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid, Joint Director of Public Instruction--Postponement of recovery of advance.

Ref:--Govt. Endt. No.13109-A/49 -1 Edn. dated 23-2-49

In resubmitting herewith the petition dated 19-2-49 of Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid referred to me for remarks with the Government endorsement cited, I may state as follows:

Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid, Joint Director of Public Instruction while on other duty had been drawing a pay of well over Rs.2,300/- per mensem for about 8 years and he was also drawing an average salary of Rs.2292-13-0 while on leave. But, in the present post he will be drawing only a pay of Rs.1,100/- which is less than half of what he was actually drawing while on other duty. This will naturally upset his financial position. Further, the deductions from his pay on account of the following advances drawn by him have to be made.

1. Car advance
2. Special advance from the High Commissioner of India
3. Postal Life Insurance and
4. Income-tax

These deductions will take away a good slice of his pay and the balance left over is hardly sufficient for him to make both ends meet. I feel therefore that this is clearly a fit case for the relaxation of the relevant rules.

I request that Government may be pleased to permit
Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid to postpone the recovery of the General Provident Fund advance till the two advances referred to above are repaid by him.

Yours faithfully,

K. S. M. M. A. S.

Postponement of the recovery of the G.P.F. advance granted to Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid.

Lt. Col. M.A. Hamid, Jt. D.P.I., is due to retire in Novr. 1951. He has requested that the recovery of the G.P.F. advance of Rs. 4,000/- sanctioned to him in 1947 might be postponed. He has given, in support of his request, the reason that, whereas his salary in the military where he was serving for the past some years and during leave on completion of his military duty was as high as rupees 2,300, his pay as Jt. Dir. is only Rs. 1,100/- and that out of the latter amount he has to repay the motor-car advance, the special passage advance granted to him by the H.C. for India, London and also subscribe to the Postal Life Insurance.

The D.P.I. recommends the request. The officer's motor-car advance and passage advance will be recovered in monthly instalments of Rs. 300/- both put together. Those recoveries will be complete only in October 1951.

The recovery of the G.P.F. advance thereafter is therefore out of the question. It cannot be postponed. What can be ordered is to waive the repayment of the advance altogether. But it seems, this can be done, as a special case, considering the circumstances of the officer mentioned at c.f. 1 and 4. Finance may see for remarks.

A above seems correct, if the officer is not to be condemned to live on a salary below his needs.

Finance (Gen)

There is no provision in the (Madras) G.P.F. Rules either for postponement or waiver of the repayment of advance.
