Re. 13780-B3-47. dated 6-8-1947.

Sir,

Sub: EDUCATION - Secondary - Deputation of Secondary Grade Assistants with Inter Trained - Handling of Higher Forms - Sanction requested.

The District Board has got 9 High Schools and one Middle School. There are about 12 temporary vacancies in the L.T. Cadre under this Board. Advertisement in the newspapers were made twice and a few applicants only responded. Even they demanded a higher starting pay. Grant of higher starting pay to new entrants creates heart-burning with the existing staff in the Board who have put in a number of years service and their grievances in that matter are to a certain extent legitimate. As such that aspect has also to be considered in granting higher starting pay. In spite of it as the Board was badly in need of Science hands three Science L.Ts. were given higher starting pay with the sanction of Government and they were appointed to the High Schools. Of them, one appointed, in a retirement vacancy, joined duty. Another has promised to join duty as soon as he is relieved. It seems there is some trouble about his relief. There is no news about the third man.

There are now ten L.T. vacancies in all the high schools put together, and want of hands operates as a great handicap in the school work. Every headmaster is complaining about the position. In order to alleviate this, as a temporary measure, a proposal was made to appoint Inter Trained Secondary grade teachers and the District Educational Officer was consulted in this office letter 13780/47 dated 6-7-1947. No reply has so far been received from him.

The schools reopened on 18-6-1947 and it is nearly two months now Regular lessons could not be had for want of hands and the pupils suffer. In view of the position I have appointed some secondary grade teachers with Intermediate Pass qualification to handle high school classes temporarily till L.T. hands are available in anticipation of your approval. I request you to kindly grant exemption and permit their appointment temporarily till suitable qualified hands are available.

I also request that some suitable amount as allowance may kindly be fixed for them to remunerate for the higher responsible work they have undertaken.

I request early orders.
