Rai Bahadur Bishan Das, M.A.,
Postmaster-General, Madras Circle,
Madras 2.

The Secretary to Government,
Education Department, Govt. of Madras,
Fort St. George, Madras.

Dated at Madras, the 5th September, '47.

Subject: Collection of funds for the grant of financial help to the dependants of P & T personnel who have died or have been reported missing on military service and to those disabled as a result of such service in the last War.

Sir,

In connection with the raising of funds for the dependants of the P & T Officials who are reported to have been killed or permanently incapacitated or declared missing, it is proposed to put on board a drama in Tamil by the members of the P & T Staff in Madras. The Superintendent, Madras Museum has stated that the Museum Theatre can be made available on Sunday, the 28th September, 1947 for the purpose. As the object of the drama is to help the dependants of the victims of the last war, I shall be obliged if Government will be pleased to let the Museum Theatre to this Department on the 28th September, 1947 free of rent.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Postmaster-General
