Sir,

It seems necessary to have a record of these refugees as and when they come. I have therefore proposed to have a history sheets of the refugees who arrive, similar to the one used for the war evacuees, a copy of which is enclosed. I request that the Government may be pleased to direct the printing of about 10,000 forms of the history sheets as early as possible.

It is necessary also for each camp to have a register of the inmates. I have already formulated a form which is now used in the camp at Kilpauk (a copy of which is enclosed). I request that the Government may be pleased to direct the printing of 10 registers of 200 pages each in the form ruled and bound.

I shall correct the proof and give necessary instructions for the Press regarding the printing of these, after the sanction of the Government communicated.
