GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS. ABSTRACT.

Refugees from the Punjab - Expenditure on relief and special staff - Sanctioned.

G.O.No. 2229.

Public (General-C) Department.

Dated 11th September 1947.

ORDER.

In pursuance of their decision to take in about 10,000 refugees from the Punjab in Madras, the Government hereby sanction an expenditure of Rs. 1 lakh for the relief of the said refugees. The Accountant-General is requested to admit the expenditure in audit pending provision of funds.

2. Subject to the approval of the Government of India, Sri K. Kodandapani Pillai, Special Officer and Protector of Emigrants, Madras will be in general charge of the arrangements connected with the relief measures for the refugees in addition to his other duties.

3. The Government also sanction the following posts for a period of 3 months from the date of employment for work connected with the relief of the refugees:-

One Deputy Collector.
One Executive Engineer.
One Supervisor.
One Upper Division Clerk.
One typist.

The Deputy Collector will work under Sri K. Kodandapani Pillai, and will assist him in looking after the refugees. The Executive Engineer will be in charge of securing suitable accommodation for the refugees and for this purpose he will tour the Province and select suitable military camps that have been vacated recently.

The Deputy Collector and the Executive Engineer will draw their grade pay and allowances.

The staff of Supervisor, Upper Division Clerk and typist will work under the Executive Engineer and will draw pay and house rent allowance if admissible according to G.O.No. 78, Finance, dated 6th February 1947 as subsequently amended with the usual Dearness Allowance.

4. The Government also authorise the following officers to incur expenditure upto the sum and for the purpose specified against each:-

Sri K. Kodandapani Pillai,
Special Officer & Protector of Emigrants, Madras.

Upto Rs. 60,000 for purchasing cloth for the refugees and incidental expenditure connected therewith.

Executive Engineer. (Sanctioned above).

Upto Rs. 6000 for work to be carried out in "Lutterals Gardens" to make it habitable for the refugees and incidental expenditure relating to other preliminary arrangements.

5. The expenditure should be debited tentatively to a new sub head "Expenditure on Punjab Refugees" to be opened under the minor head "27. Miscellaneous" - j. Miscellaneous and unforeseen.
