My daughter aged 13 years is a musical genuis and has given many Violin Recitals in aid of the War Fund and The Red Cross. The World's greatest teachers such Mr. Harold Berkley of New York the Editor of the well known Musical Magazine "The Etude" have accepted to teach her as there is every possibility of her becoming one of the World's greatest Violinists. As I do not have adequate funds to support her during her Training in New York, I was asked by the Americal Consul to write you to kindly arrange for a scholarship by the Indian Government.

I shall be highly grateful if you will kindly arrange to give her a scholarship and give me all advice in the matter.

The views of the Madras Government, therefore, as to the extent to which they are prepared to share the cost of Miss Kailasam's training abroad, may be conveyed to this Department at an early date to enable the Government of India to consider the matter further.

Sub Overseas Scholarships - 1947-48
- award of a Scholarship in Music to Miss Olive Kailasam.

(g) p3cf On a request from Sri P. Kailasam for financial assistance to send his daughter Miss. Olive Kailasam for higher Studies in Music (Violin) in the U.S.A.

(c) p1cf The C of I stated that if the Govt. of Madras were willing to recommend her case and also furnish expert opinion as to her musical promise, it might be possible for them to give some financial help to Miss Kailasam. This Govt. accordingly

(g) p15 cf forwarded to the C of I the expert p13 of this opinion of Rev. Father Basenach, an expert violinist and in view of his high opinion of Miss Kailasam, recommended her case for financial assistance on the presumption that the C of I would meet the entire expse.

p1cf In their present letter dt. 20-7-47, the C of I state that they would consider Miss Kailasam's case for financial assistance after the extent to which the Madras Govt. would be prepared to share the cost of her training abroad, is made known. On a p2cf reference to Sri. P. Kailasam, he has p4cf furnished an estimate of the cost of his daughter's training in America for 3 years and has also stated that he was is prepared to bear a portion of the expse total expse. The entire expse on her training comes to Rs 21,600 including T.A. to and from the place of instruction.

3 Music has not been include as one of the subjects for which overseas Scholarships are awarded in 1946-47. It is seen from the Press reports enclosed with Sri Kailasam's ~~letter~~, on pp 5-6 CF that Miss Kailasam is exceptionally gifted as an expert Violinist, ~~and that a foreign training would help her to rank herself as one of the foremost Violinists of the world~~. Rev. Father Basenach who is an Expert Violinist of Madras has also expressed a similar view. Considering these recommendations, Miss Kailasam's Case seems a unique one and any financial help given to her by this Govt would seem to be perfectly justified. In this view, this Govt may perhaps agree to apportion the cost of the expe equally between themselves, the Govt of India and Sri Kailasam, who is prepared to pay a portion of it.

4 Usually, scholarships are given for Courses, the duration of which is for 2 years. In the present Case also, the Course of training may be shortened from 3 to 2 years which will result in the curtailment of the total expe.

5 Finance may see ~~before circulation~~ for remarks.

Sri Kailasam says that he has made arrangements in New York for the training of his daughter in Music, and that passports and dollar release etc. have been obtained. He says that he is prepared to pay a portion of the expenditure connected with the training, but has not definitely stated how much of the estimated cost he is prepared to share. The Govt of India have stated that they may be prepared to consider the question of giving some financial assistance after getting an idea of the extent to which this Govt will be prepared to share the cost of training. Music is not a subject included in the Overseas Scholarship Scheme. Apparently there is no dearth of qualified musicians or music teachers. If the question of granting assistance is to be pursued further, it would seem desirable to obtain the views of the D.P.I. The file may be sent to him w.o. for remarks.

I do not think we need pursue the matter further at present. If Govt wish to bear any portion of the cost of any recommended scholarship, a definite subject in which we are interested to get a candidate trained in America at our cost should be selected forward to Govt & Govt's views awaited before any portion of the cost is borne by us.

(a) Allegro Molto Appasionato—
(b) Andante
(c) Allegretto non troppo
(d) Allegro Molto Vivace

The E minor is the most popular of all Violin Concertos, and Mendelssohn, five years before it was finished—it was begun in 1838—had been assured by Ferdinand David that it would stand with Beethoven's as one of the two greatest Concertos for Violin, and allowing for its smaller proportions for its suaver and more feminine Contours, that is exactly where it stands. Here in truth, is a work of "heavenly length:" the themes have a beautiful punctuality of statement and development; there is not a moment of malingering in the Concerto, not a bar of padding. No better lightweight music has ever been written: it is ineffably sweet, tender, lyrical—and heartless. Its a masterpiece of a musician.
