Copy of letter dated 26th November 1947 from the Headmaster, Christian College High School, Madras to the District Educational Officer, Madras.

Sub: Medium of instruction.

Ref: Your letter ROC.No.32-G/47 dated 21-11-1947.

In continuation of our letter dated 20th November 1947, the following additional information is given:-

In Form II the number of non-tamil pupils is $175 - 67 = 108$.
Therefore two sections with English medium were necessary.

In Form III: the number of non-tamil pupils is $192 - 81 = 111$.
Therefore, three sections with English medium were necessary.

In Form IV: The number of non-Tamil pupils is $263 - 98 = 165$.
Therefore, four sections with English medium were necessary.

In form V: The number of non-tamil pupils is $222 - 85 = 137$.
Therefore, three sections with English medium were necessary.

In regard to Form VI, I have to report that the rules regarding the medium of instruction was not enforced in the case of pupils in this class as they were permitted to study with English medium in form V.

Telugu as a medium of instruction was introduced in Form I only in 1947-48.
