From (Name) Dr. S. R. U. Savor, M.A., D. Sc., I.E.S.,
(Designation) Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH Department.

Sir, FORT ST. GEORGE, MADRAS.

One Sri T.S. Subrahmanya Iyer, Lecturer in History, Loyola College, Madras was subscribing to the Teachers' Provident Fund. At the outbreak of the war, he joined the war service as Adjutant of the 5th Madras Bn. University Training Corps.

2. At the time of leaving the College for war service he took permission to continue to contribute to the Teachers' Provident Fund during the period of war service. The management of the college were originally unwilling to contribute their share of the contribution for the period of the Lecturer's service under the Military Department; but subsequently, they were prepared to pay their contributions provided the Government would also contribute their share. The period of war service of the Lecturer was from 1.8.1941 to 31.7.1946. On the strength of the permission accorded by the District Educational Officer, Madras to deposit the belated contribution, the Correspondent, Loyola College deposited a sum of Rs. 1,715-10-0 including the management's share into the Savings Bank Account of the subscriber on 21.2.1947.

3. Thus, there has been a delay of more than 3 years in depositing the contribution for the period from 1.8.1941 to 31.7.1946. In order that the subscriber may not lose the benefit of the Government contribution, the belated deposits need to be condoned by the Government. I have represented the full facts of the case to the Accountant-General, Madras and he has stated that there is no objection to my recommending to Government the condonation of the belated deposit. I have the honour therefore to request Government, that, in the circumstances of the case, the Government may be pleased to condone, as a special case, the delay in the deposits made, without which the subscriber will be obliged to lose the benefit of the Government contribution.
