Dear Sirs,

In your list of publications received in the Publications Branch, you not infrequently record Indian copyright lists. In your issue for January-February, 1947, for example, you have an item entitled "Catalogue of Books Registered". This relates to the United Provinces and covers the period September to December, 1945.

We are anxious to acquire as many Indian Books as possible and would like to get the copyright lists as one way of finding out about Indian Publications. Would it be asking too much of you to request the names of such lists as well as the names of their publishers, so we could write to India to get them regularly. I should appreciate very much any help that you can give us in this direction.

Sincerely yours,
Andrew D. Osborn.

Assistant Librarian.

Note: Please see the letter from the Govt of India on p.1 of and the remarks of D.P. on p.2 of. The Librarian, Harvard College Library, London, is not entitled to the free supply of publications of the Govt. Ordinarily, books and pamphlets are supplied free of cost on a reciprocal basis. But as the ^{price} cost of the publication in this case is too small (3 to 6 p.) it does not seem necessary to recover the cost of the books from the Librarian. The supply of Govt. may be restricted to supply a copy of the books free of cost, to the Librarian, Harvard College Library London. The draft order on p.1 anti is for approval. May be sent to H. W. for acceptance before issue.
