To the Education Secretary,
Madras Government.

Dear Sir, Re. RK Mookerji Lectureship
Endowment, Lucknow University

28480 With reference to above, if there is any legal bar to making a recurrent grant to above Endowment as prayed for by the Committee concerned through my humble self, I am enclosing herewith the letter of the Orissa Government sanctioning such a prayer in the hope that you may be pleased to reconsider the matter which has an all-Indian interest and thus may be deemed worthy of your support.

Yours ffly
Radha Kurnud Mookerji

The Professor says he understands from Mr. (Cm.) that the case was turned down previously because of a legal difficulty about grants for educational purposes & his point now is that as the Orissa Govt. has made such a grant that no such legal difficulty need be felt. (Meaning that it is within previous precedents.)

Secy's remarks on p. 1 ank. The previous paper on the subject are put up at (Q). The request for a grant in support of a lectureship endowed in Lucknow University in Indian History and Civilization was not granted because it would, if granted, ~~would~~ create an inconvenient precedent and there may be similar appeals from other universities and institutions from outside this Province + see the note at R on p 2 and the order at p 4, ref to letter no 42997 (93/47) - 2 Edu dated 24-7-47. Except the reason quoted above, there is no legal difficulty to make a contribution from Provincial Revenue towards extra-provincial purposes. As a matter of fact the proposal to make a grant to the Travancore Govt towards the

The request on p.1 ante is for a reconsideration of the orders in the letter ^{on 11-7-47} at (Q), refusing a grant (of Rs.500 ^{per year} ~~per~~) towards the expenditure on endowment lectures ^{on} Indian history, civilization etc., at the Lucknow University. Attention is invited to this Deptt. note and Fin. note on pp.5-6 ante. The case may now be circulated to H.M.(Edn.) for orders with reference to R on p. 6 ante. H.M.(Fin.) should see if a grant is to be given.

Dr. Radha Kumud Mookerji is a distinguished educationist.

He himself has made an appeal. I know these are difficult cases and will act as bad precedents. If H.M. Finance considers fit, we may grant Rs.250 per year for two years. I leave it entirely to his discretion.

The cost of preparation of a Malayalam lexicon is before the Standing Finance Committee. The difference between these two proposals is that the latter (Grant to the Travancore Govt) is for a purpose in which this Govt. are also interested. The Province comprising districts speaking Malayalam language, while in the present case, there seems to be no such direct benefit.

This draft may agree with the views of E.P.H. Secy. about. If a grant is given from the financial department, it should be followed by the Govt. to decide the question.
