ENCLOSURES _____

SPARE COPIES _____

Sri. J.N. Paramasivam Pillai, B.A., L.T., Assistant, Board High School, Satyamangalam, who attained the age of 55 on 16-9-47 was ordered to retire from service with effect from the afternoon of 15-9-47. In spite of advertisements in the news papers, only 11 applications were received to fill in seventeen vacancies. Out of the eleven applications, 5 were from retired teachers. Of the other six applicants, one is not conversant with the language, two were not available for appointment and the rest three were appointed. Of the five retired teachers two of them have been appointed. To fill in the other remaining vacancies ten untrained graduates have been appointed. No applicant is available for appointment to fill in the L.T. grade vacancy caused by the retirement of Sri. J.N. Paramasivam Pillai, B.A., L.T., in the Board High School, Satyamangalam. Therefore it is proposed to re-employ Sri. J.N. Paramasivam Pillai, B.A., L.T., as L.T. Grade Assistant, Board High School, Satyamangalam on a pay of Rs.100/-- the pay which he drew immediately before the date of his retirement, with effect from the date of sanction of Government. Of course his services will be terminated, when a qualified candidate is available for appointment or on the date of closure of the school for summer vacation, whichever is earlier.

The statement required in this connection with reference to Director of Public Instruction's Roc. No. 5365--G.1/46 dated 10-9-46 is enclosed.

I request that Government may be pleased to issue very early orders sanctioning the proposal.
