No. 1931-3/47AR dated 19 Nov 1947. (2)

Sub: Presentation of duplicate stone sculptures and Arikamedu antiquities to the Government Archaeological Museum, Trichur in exchange for some megalithic potteries of Cochin - Sanction requested.

A representation has been made by the Government Archaeologist, Trichur to present to the Government Museum, Trichur the following five stone sculptures (duplicates of our collections) and some Arikamedu Antiquities in exchange for some Megalithic potteries of Cochin:-

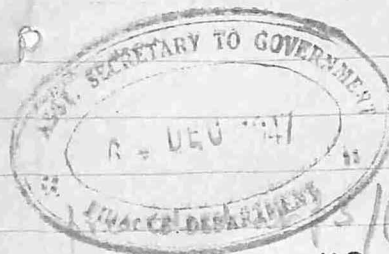

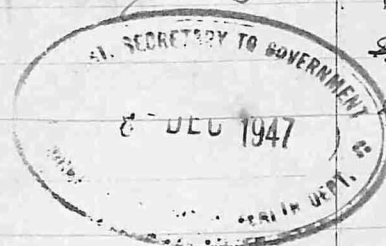

1. Subrahmanya as Mayilvahan
2. Sasta or Ayyanar riding on elephant
3. Surya
4. A Friese of dwarfs from Kaveripakkam
5. A Lotus specimen of the Amaravati sculpture.

(P.T.O)

As I feel the Megalithic potteries of Cochin offered in exchange will greatly enrich our ethnological collections I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to pass orders to effect the exchange.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. Aiyappan
Superintendent.
