13th Meeting - Attendance.

As originally arranged I should leave for Bombay, to attend the meeting of the Central Advisory Board of Education, on the 6th of January. However, owing to the fact that I have had a recurrence of my old gall-stone trouble, the Doctor has advised me to take as much rest as possible and keep to rigid diet. In view of this and the fact that I am still far from well, I request that the Government may be pleased to depute Sri C.D.S. Chetti, Deputy Director of Public Instruction, to attend the meeting in my place and that the Government of India may be informed of this. I am writing to Dr. Sen separately about this and requesting him to make arrangements regarding his accommodation, etc.
