Respected Sir,

For the two years (1943-1945), I had been a student of Pachayappa's College studying in the Intermediate class. Since I completed the above course in the last September, I joined B.A. in this academic year in the same College. During the period of my Intermediate Course, Your office was pleased to obtain for me, from the Government of India, grant to enable me to take the College Course.

Now, Sir, though my father P. G. Raghavachari, returned back from Singapore, he is unemployed. Since he is unemployed and since I have no other means of financial support to prosecute my further studies, I request you to grant the same till my intended course is finished. Hope Sir, you will favour me with my humble request.

Thanking Your Goodself,
I beg to remain,
Respected Sir,
