No. 276/SRC dated 3rd December 1946.

Sir,

Sub: C. Rajagopal, Charge Imposer - Re-employment.

I have to state that the above hand imposer has petitioned me asking for re-employment as a temporary compositor for a further period on the grounds that he is in perfect health and capable of strenuous work.

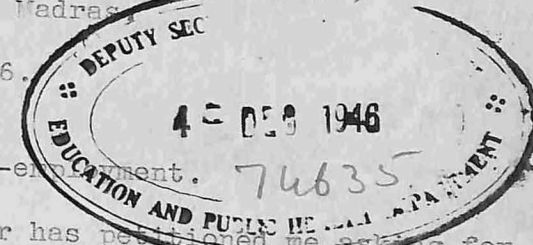

2. He retired on 14-3-1944 having failed in his efforts to induce Government to alter the date of birth in his service book by 10 years. Since that date and as he received only a gratuity of Rs.180/- Government re-employed him as a temporary compositor from year to year on Rs.20/- as an act of compassion - Vide G.Os. No.1528 Wdn. dated 11-9-1944 and 1533 Wdn., dated 27-9-1945.

C. Rajagopal's services were terminated on 19-9-1946.

3. As his is a hard case, as I require experienced compositors, as his re-employment will not bar the promotion of any other employee and as he is in good health and fit for further work, I would request Government to sanction his re-employment for another year as a special case.

From the Superintendent, Govt. Press
 No.276/S.B.C. dated 3-12-46

In the letter in the current file the Superintendent, Government Press, recommends that C. Rajagopal retired Charge Imposer, may be re-employed for another year as a special case. According to G.O.No 1340 Public (Ser), dated 10--6--46, retired persons should be re-employed only in exceptional circumstances. There does not appear to be any exceptional circumstances in the present case to justify a departure from the general rule.
