No.1139 L/46-1 dated 11th Decr.1946.

Sir,

Apprentices - Electrical Engineering apprentices - Service as Junior Engineers under emergency rules counting for ~~max~~ practical training - Extension of orders - Requested.

In G.O.No.MS.638 Edn. & P.H. dated 24-4-45 Government were pleased to extend the orders issued in G.O.MS.1058 Edn. dated 15-7-44 under which electrical engineering graduates appointed as Junior Engineers under emergency rules were declared eligible to count the period of such emergency appointment towards the period of practical training required for obtaining diplomas as prescribed under the College rules in respect of passed students from the College of Engineering, Guindy. The above orders were however, to be in force only for the duration of the war.
I have to state that several electrical engineering apprentices are continuing as Junior Engineers under emergency rules or have continued to be Junior Engineers under emergency rules in the interest of the Department even after the end of the war for want of regularly selected candidates.
In order to issue them certificates necessary for obtaining their diplomas, I request that the period of validity of the concession granted in G.O.No.638 Edn. & P.H. dated 24-4-45 may be extended upto 31st March 1947.

I request early orders in the matter.
