Sir,

Subject:- ESTABLISHMENT - Secondary Education - Appointment of L. T. Teachers on a higher salary - Orders requested.

Reference:- Government endorsement No.5720/B2/46-1,
Education, dated 8-10-1946.

26/7 The posts of L. Ts. were advertised three times this year but only a very few applications were received. When the qualified applicants were appointed in the minimum pay in the time scale admissi- ble to L. Ts., no one joined duty. As the Head Masters of the Board High Schools, Manjoor and Kotagiri, complained repeatedly about the inadequacy of the staff, the posts were again advertised in the Hindu. Only 4 applications were received from qualified hands, but three of them demand higher salary as detailed below, and the other applicant, who has not mentioned about his pay, has been appointed as an assistant in the Board High School, Manjoor.

1. Sri K. Ramaswamy Iyengar, M.A., L.T., - Rs.90/- per mensem excluding allowances.
2. " S. Vasudevan, M.A., B.T., M R S T - " 100/- -do-
3. " M. Natesan, B.A., L.T., - - - " 125/- -do-

Owing to the dearth of qualified hands and in view of the high cost of living in this District, I request that Government may be pleased to accord sanction to fix the pay of these teachers between Rs.90/- and 100/- per mensem in the time scale of Rs.65-5/2-10 according to their service and merit.

I request the favour of early orders.
