Sir,

Ref:- G.O. No. 474Edn. dated 27-3-1943.

I have the honour to state that my remuneration as lecturer in Printing in the Government School of Technology has since been enhanced from Rs.5/- to Rs.6/- per hour. I request Government may be pleased to sanction my acceptance of the remuneration at the enhanced rate.

As I have to conduct practical classes and examinations very often for a duration of three hours, I also request the maximum remuneration that may be accepted per lecture also be raised to Rs.18/- per lecture.

Thanking you,

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Ref:- G.O. No. Ms. 436, Edn., dated 7-3-47.

My remuneration for taking the evening classes in the Central Polytechnic was raised from Rs 5/- to Rs 6/- per hour with effect from July 1946 and the Government in their above order authorized my acceptance of the remuneration at the enhanced rate and I have drawn my remuneration accordingly.

2. The Accountant-General in his letter No. G-3-Judl-11-158 dated 10-7-47 (copy enclosed) has now disallowed my claim at the enhanced rate prior to date of order and has directed me to refund the excess amount drawn.

3. I have the honour to request Government to sanction my acceptance of the enhanced rate from July 1946.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

ENCLOSURE.

Copy of letter No. G-3-Judl-11-158 dated 10-7-47 from the Accountant-General, Madras to Mr. G.F. Amalanathan.

Sub:- Date of effect of enhanced rate of remuneration sanctioned in G.O. No. Ms. 436, Edn., dated 7-3-47.

With reference to your reply dated 18-6-47 to this office objection Memo No. G-3-Judl-11-104 dated 2-6-47, it is pointed that unless otherwise stated the date of effect of the enhanced rate is only the date of issue of the G.O. The amount drawn in excess may therefore kindly be refunded to the credit of Government.
