Sir,

Sub.- Education - Refugee students -
College & University Education -
Financial Assistance - Application of.

May I take this opportunity to express my grateful thanks for your kindness in having granted me financial aid for the session 1944-45. As I was unsuccessful in the intermediate examination held in March 1945, I continued my studies privately and got through the examination held by the University of Madras in 1946. I am now studying in the Junior B.Sc class in the Presidency College, Madras.

The financial circumstances of our family have not changed materially since last year. My father, who was getting an average monthly income of Rs. 300/- in Burma is now drawing here a monthly salary of Rs. 110/- only, with which he has to support a family consisting of himself, my mother, my two brothers and myself. With considerably diminished income and rising prices of essential commodities, this is more than he can manage. Although Burma has now been re-occupied by His Majesty's Government, conditions there still remain very unsettled, and the commercial firm where my father was employed prior to evacuation from Burma has not yet been re-opened and he will not therefore be able to get back to Burma for some time yet. I therefore find myself compelled to approach you for further financial assistance to enable me to prosecute my studies during the session 1946-47.

I enclose a statement of my educational expenses for the session 1946-47 certified by the Principal, and should be very grateful indeed if you would kindly sanction me the full amount recommended by the Principal. May I finally add that unless this assistance is granted I have no means which will make it possible for me to continue my studies.

Thanking you very much,

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

T. Sarala Naidu.
