report.

Sri S.K. Rajendran is an evacuee student studying in IVth B.Sc in the Pachaiyappas college, Madras. He was granted financial assistance for his III B.Sc course 1945-46 vide G.O. No. 2058 Education dated 5-12-'45. He has now applied for continuance of the financial assistance for 1946-47. His financial position is not improved. I recommend the grant of financial assistance as detailed in the recommendation form. He is getting half scholarship. There is an undisbursed balance of Rs. 70-8-0 out of the amount sanctioned last year as reported in this office letter No. 4884/45 dated 8-1-'46. This amount is deducted from the amount recommended for 1946-47. He has been paid Rs. 220/- as repayable advance.

The application of the student in original and the recommendation are Pachaiyappa's College, Madras.

Sir,

I come under the evacee list and have received financial help from you from my first year intermediate to III B.Sc.

In my intermediate class I was given only boarding and lodging charges, as I was in receipt of full fee concession from my College authorities. And again in III B.Sc. I was given half fee-concession and the same would be continued for another year i.e. for IV B.Sc. P.T.O.

-4-

This being the final year of the degree course, without your assistance, my studies may come to an abrupt end and all the money so far spent would become a waste.

I, therefore request that I may be given the charges for boarding and lodging, tuition fees, special fees and university examination fees, as in the last year.

Yours obediently,
S. Rajendran
