Enclosures: No. Accts/Store. dated 6th March 1947.

Sir,

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.1914 Edn., dated 7-10-46 and
 " " 2288 Edn., dated 28-11-46.

Sub: Temporary coolies for work connected with arrangement for auction - further retention - sanction requested.

Though the term for which the retention of the temporary coolies sanctioned in G.O.No.2288 Edn., dated 28-11-46 expired on 1-3-47, I am continuing to retain them in anticipation of Government sanction with a view to expedite the holding of the auction yearly. The work of sorting, arranging, weighing and grouping the materials has been mostly done and whatever remains still to be done cannot be finished without the aid of coolies. Besides some machines condemned as unserviceable already are lying at the Branch Press, Mount Road and they have to be cleaned and made ready for auction.

In view, therefore of the above reasons, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to sanction the retention of these coolies for a further period of three months or until the work is completed whichever is earlier.

The expenditure will be met from the allotment under "56 d. Stationery and Printing - Government Press (Madras). A. General Overhead charges - 5 other charges - Pay of Menials."

The delay in applying to Government for sanction beforehand is regretted.

The strength of coolies whose retention has been sanctioned in G.O.2288 Edn., dated 28-11-46 is six and not three. Therefore three coolies mentioned in the G.O. cited above is presumably an error for six coolies. I would therefore request Government to issue necessary modification to the orders cited above.
