No.W.D./Mis.

Dated:- 24th February 1947.

Sub:- Publicity Pamphlets - Distribution of -

Inviting your attention to my letter No.DS/Lino dated 24-9-46 in reply to Government Memorandum No.51205-1 F.1 Edn., dated 10-9-46, I state that so far I had printed and distributed about 15,91,100 copies of the following 7 kinds of pamphlets in English and Indian languages issued by the Publicity Department.

1. Simple Food Receipts.
2. Maize Receipts.
3. Food Administration.
4. Save the cereals.
5. Barley Receipts
6. Anti Corruption
7. Cooking of Brazilian Rice.

The Director of Information and Publicity has since sent the under-mentioned pamphlets in English and Indian Languages for printing and distribution by this office.

1. Rationing
2. Prohibition
3. Labour Disputes
4. Livestock Improvement
5. Textile Policy.

The total number of copies required of item Nos. 1 and 2 is 2,40,600. He has not as yet stated his complete requirements in respect of the other items. Considering the frequency in the publication and distribution of pamphlets of the above nature and taking into account the abnormal progressive increase of work thrown upon this office, I request Government may be pleased to sanction with immediate effect, the following staff, pending issue of final orders on the proposals submitted to Government in my letter No.40-Mis/47 dated 24-1-47 to enable me to carry on
