A provision of Rs. 20 lakhs was made in 1945-46 for the introduction of compulsory ele. edu. in selected villages in each district. As the scheme was sanctioned late in the year, only a portion of the allotment was utilised. It has been estimated that the continuance of the scheme in 1946-47 will entail Rs. 22 lakhs. Another sum of Rs. 22 lakhs has been provided for the extension of the scheme to other villages in 1946-47. The actual no. of schools opened and the expenditure incurred are available.

To U.S.

The above extract has been sent to this dept with reference to clause (d) of the question on p 1 above. As indicated by the E & P.H. Dept in their note above regarding this clause, the member apparently wants information regarding the bifurcated course in secondary schools. It is seen from the Report of the Special Committee on Technical Education that the Director of Public Instruction has formulated proposals in this regard.

If however the member has in mind the proposal for providing technical and industrial education, which are under the control of the Dept of Industries, reference is invited to the answer given to a similar question in the Madras Legislative Council - Copy sent under (Y). The course of instruction in the proposed Polytechnics will enable the candidates to obtain Diplomas in subjects providing for the class of foremen, supervisors and minor executives who form the intermediate class of technicians between the skilled craftsman and the higher executive in industry.

With this information, this note may be returned.

Draft Answer
Rs. 44 lakhs in 1946-47

The information is not readily available, and the Labor Minister in checking it will be disappointed.

Rs. 47 lakhs in 1946-47

The Hon'ble Member presumably refers to the introduction of the bifurcated course in secondary schools. The scheme is not yet ready.
