The Collector of Madras,
Madras.

Sir,

I am an Evacuee from Burma having come to India by land route in April 1942 along with my parents. I have now passed the Intermediate Examination in Arts and Sciences of the Madras University after undergoing the Intermediate course in the Madras Christian College, Tambaram, with the financial assistance given to me by the Government of India for the said course. I have now obtained a seat in 3rd B.Sc. class, in the Presidency College, Madras, under the full trust and belief that the Government of India will be pleased to continue the financial assistance for the said course as heretofore.

A.T.O

My father Mr. A.D. Samrat was the Secretary of the Municipality of Syriam till 1937 and was thereafter engaged in lucrative business at the time trade in timber and forest contracts. He had a very flourishing business at the time when we were compulsorily evacuated and he owned then four houses properties in Syriam, which alone were worth more than Rs 20,000/- apart from the business which was of the value of several thousands. My father now learns from reliable sources in Burma that all the said houses were completely destroyed during the Enemy occupation and no trace of them can be found now. My father has applied for compensation for the loss of his properties to the Government of Burma which is still pending decision and I understand that all claims are not likely to be settled for a period of two years.

7 4 3
As my father's financial condition remains static as it was in 1942 when he landed in Madras, but for the meagre allowance afforded by the Protector of Emigrants which is barely sufficient for the maintenance of our family & submit that I will not be able to continue my course unless I am given financial assistance by the Government until my father regains his former status in Burma after the compensation for his properties is finally settled. It will not be out of place for me to state that my father's financial position in Burma was very sound that I would certainly have had the benefit of a college course had it not been for our compulsory evacuation consequent to Enemy occupation.

Under the above circumstances I request that you will be pleased to sanction financial assistance so that I may be able to continue the course.

I beg to state that I have to pay Rs 100/- apart from fees for "Geology I" which are a part of the course. So I would request you to take this also into consideration when you sanction
the financial assistance.

Thanking you sir,

Madras
