Secretary, E. & P.H.

The D.P.I. has reported that Mr.Lobo has taken charge of his new post with effect from 21.3.1947 and that he has been permitted to exercise all the powers of the Commissioner for Govt.Examinations. The Director has also forwarded a copy of the letter from Mr.Lobo and has recommended the requests contained therein, viz. that Mr.Lobo may be allowed to draw his pay including personal pay and duty allowance as well as Madras House Allowance and the Cost of Living Allowance which he drew at the time of his going on leave prior to retirement.

The G.O. appointing Mr.Lobo as Special officer is dated 24.3.47 and has effect only from that date. In view of the fact that the D.P.I. has allowed him to take charge of his appointment with effect from 21.3.47, it is for orders whether the G.O. may be given retrospective effect from 21.3.47. There appears to be no objection to approve the action of the D.P.I. in having permitted Mr.Lobo to exercise all the powers of the G.O.E. and the order already issued would then require no amendment. As regards the request of Mr.Lobo to draw personal pay and duty allowance, please see the notes at B on p.2 n.f.

Re: the letter from the D.P. at pbs-64 since received may be perused. As regards the presumption of the D.P. at A on p. 54, it is said that though Mr Kobo has been re-employed from 21.3.47, the period of leave refused to him will extend his service from the date of superannuation by such period. For audit purposes, he will presumably be treated as having been on extension for this period from the date of his superannuation. Even though during this period he may be on leave and on reemployment, but the period of leave refused ^{and} utilized for reemployment will be availed of by the officer after this period of extension but will be treated as reemployment. ~~Not to be~~ ^{As matter for the AG} otherwise, Mr Kobo will ^{first} be on leave ^(extension period) for a few days, then on reemployment and after the termination of reemployment, on leave ^(extension period). This matter will be looked into by the AG. No orders as suggested by the Dr. regarding the pension need be issued now. Finance may see.

A draft order based on the orders in circulation is only for app'l.

Dr. with reference to (1) the order may be 'inclusive of pension'. If the A.G. for an audit point of view suggests any revision a revised order may be issued.
