Sir,
SUB:- Schools - Government Secondary and Training Schools for women, Employment of Hindustani teachers.

REF:- G.O.Ms.No.676,Edn., dated 8th April 1947.

I have the honour to state that sanction was given to the G.O. cited above for the Employment for a period of one year from the date of Employment (February 1947) of a Hindustani teacher in each of the Government Secondary and Training School for women, Erode, Tirur, Namakkal, Calicut and Tellicherry. In my letter Rc.No.96 K3/47, dated 25-3-1947, respectively sanction for the posts in the schools, I have furnished the date of Employment of the Hindustani teachers as February 1947. It was subsequently brought to my notice that Hindustani teachers were employed in each of the Government Secondary and Training School for women, Calicut and Tellicherry on the 10th of January 1947 and not as February as stated in my letter to Government. It is also reported that the Hindi teacher appointed for the Government Secondary and Training School for women, Namakkal, did not join duty during the 1946-47 and that another teacher is being appointed now. In the circumstances I report that Government may be pleased to delete the words ("February 47") occurring after the words "date of Employment" in the G.O. cited above and insert the words "in the current year" instead.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
