No. 3 Mis/S.B. dated 11th March 1947.

Sir,

1164 of Book m34.

I have the honour to state that under Rule 277 of the Financial Code Volume I, when a Government servant who has furnished security goes on leave or deputed to other duty the Government servant who is appointed to officiate for him is required to furnish for the post.

2. In the Government Press, Madras the following posts are security posts.

	Security.
Cashkeeper	Rs
Paper Storekeeper:	2,000/-
Assistant Cashkeeper, Mint	1,000/-
Publication Storekeeper	500/-
Assistant Cashkeeper, Mount Road	500/-
Sales Clerk, Mount Road	500/-
Shroff	300/-
	100/-

3. Whenever a holder of a security post goes on leave, other than Casual leave, or is deputed to other duty any in the interest of efficient administration, I find it very difficult to find a suitable candidate to officiate for him. Further, the existing clerical staff consists mostly of inexperienced Junior Clerks, a good number of them having been appointed under the emergency provision. I am therefore, by necessity forced to select from the few senior staff for the more important security posts and the rest from the Junior cadre. When these men are asked to furnish security in leave or deputation vacancies there is naturally a great discontent as it is more or less an undeserving penalty in as much as they do not derive any benefit from acting in leave or deputation vacancies.

I would under the circumstances request that Government may be pleased to delegate to me powers to relax the rules regarding security whenever I consider that inter-transfers between security and non-security posts are necessary in the interests of efficient administration.

Superintendent.
